The De Luxe Egg Cooker boils, poaches, scrambles, shirrs or steam fries eggs quickly, conveniently, and economically right at the table. It is electrical but has no wire coils to burn out—automatic but has no moving parts.

Eggs taste better and are better for you cooked in steam than boiled in water. The gentle action of steam cooks them evenly throughout, making them delicious and preserving their digestible qualities.

Delicious poached eggs on toast. Eggs that are cooked evenly throughout, served with crisp brown toast.

The De Luxe Egg Service features a graceful new design that complements the most fastidious table service. This set includes the De Luxe Egg Cooker with durable polished ivory porcelain decorated with shining silver, four beautifully matched egg cups, useful poaching attachments, and a gleaming chromium plated service tray.
